

Sam [REDACTED]

I thought that you were a good teacher because you are relaxed and you relate + the students well. This driver's education class was informative and not stressful like others can be. I liked the structure of this class as well because it was so buyed back